

Berkeley is full of “fast-casual” places to eat (i.e., you order, get your food, and find your own table). They are literally everywhere; most of them are good to very good, and you can find them via Googlemaps or wandering along Telegraph and Bancroft Avenues on the south side of campus or Center, University, or Shattuck Avenues on the downtown/west side of campus.

The following list is a selection of places where you can have a meal with wait service.

Near Hotel Durant

Pub Food with Beer - Pappy's Grill

Upscale Pub Food with Beer or Cocktails- Henry's, Freehouse

Nice beer selection with snacks - Tap Haus

Downtown/West side (10-15 minute walk from VLSB)

By general food type

Pizza and Beer - Jupiter, Bobby G's

Chinese - Great China (closed on Tuesday)

California Cuisine - Eureka, Gather

Indonesian - Jayakarta

Salvadoran - Platano

Thai -Gecko Gecko

Mexican - Cancun

Vietnamese - Anh Hong

Vegetarian

The majority of Berkeley restaurants have veggie options.

These also have vegan options: sweetgreen, Tender Greens, Saturn Cafe

Upscale restaurants

Mexican-inspired Comal

Italian - Corso

California cuisine - Revival

Downtown bars

Jupiter - local brewpub with pizza and snacks (outdoor beer garden)

Triple Rock - local brewpub with snacks and assorted dinner items

Beta Lounge - wine and cocktails with snacks

Tupper and Reed - speakeasy cocktail bar (no food)